New Business:

- Coach Dave Breslaw updated the Booster Club on the Alumni Basketball game. The game will be held on Friday, June 1 at 6:30 pm with a $5 admission. The update included the alumni participating, the number of games to be played, the length of the games, expenses and advertising. Potential expenses include the cost of t-shirts, security personnel and building services personnel. Discussion was held on advertising the event, including printing flyers (donated by Kevin Brooks), an article in the Tide, RNBC, listserv and possibly an article in the Gazette. Several of the issues need to be coordinated with the RM business manager.
- Two nights are still open for the Little Theater, April 27th and May 4th. Leo will let the coaches know.
- Steve Forsythe, football coach, is interested in selling the Entertainment Book as a football fundraiser. The potential for revenue is very promising. This will not be a Booster Club fundraiser although the funds can be deposited into the football booster account, if requested.

- The Nominating Committee presented the slate of officers for the 2007-2008 year as follows: Ralph Lary, President; Kevin Brooks, Vice President; Arnold Lee, Treasurer; Cissy Palomares, Secretary. This information will be presented on the Booster Club email list and open for additional nominations.
- Ralph and Nancy Lary would like to host a “Booster Bash” to give the volunteers and coaches an opportunity to get to know one another. This event will be held on June 2nd. Cheryl Hoover will coordinate the event.
- The swim team coach, Christa Krukiel, was named All Met Coach. Congratulations!
